

Kind Words

the glue that helps keep us together

BOOK SUMMARY

Kind Words is the youngest reader's book on teaching positive, healthy communication. Geared for ages five and up, Kind Words explores the difference between kind, helpful talk versus mean, hurtful talk. The reader will explore how they feel when different words are spoken, that it is not their fault when hurtful words are said, they are not alone, and it is okay to ask for help if they feel afraid or confused. Sometimes people need help.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Jeni Davenport has a heart for connecting, communicating, and collaborating with children, young people, and families encouraging them to keep moving forward by learning new skills, creating positive relationships, and advocating for safe and healthy homes. Jeni is a mom of three children, former foster mom, National Board Certified Health and Wellness Coach, and has earned her Masters degree in Health Science, Community Health Education. She is an active community leader and coach mentoring young people and their families on wellness, leadership, and life challenges. Visit www.thestandingmountain.com for more information or to order signed copies with accompanying wrist band and bookmark.

FORMAT: 8X10 PAPERBACK, HARDBACK

PUBLICATION DATE: MAY 2019

PAGES: 36

PAPERBACK PRICE: $13.95

(PBK) ISBN: 978-1-64299-798-9

HARDBACK PRICE: $23.95

(HARDCOVER) ISBN 978-1-0980-0034-9

PUBLISHER: CHRISTIAN FAITH PUBLISHING 866-554-0919

AVAILABLE AT INGRAM, INDIE BOUND, AMAZON, BARNES & NOBLE